

LOCAL NEWS

BROWNINGTON.

Mrs. E. E. Dutton is very sick.

Mrs. Geo. Burroughs has the mumps.

There were no services Sunday afternoon as the pastor was called to attend a funeral.

Mabel Parlin, who was taken to the hospital in St. Johnsbury, has had a successful operation.

Mrs. Rowena Arthur and son, Charles Anderson of Albany and Mr. and Mrs. John House of Orleans were in town Sunday to attend the funeral of Andrew Murray.

Mrs. (Dr.) Gilman, Mrs. Edith Comstock and daughter and Mrs. Geo. Richardson and daughter from Orleans visited the Misses Bryant one day last week.

Andrew Murray, who has been sick for a long time, died July 14, at the age of 85. He is survived by six children, Mrs. Flora Shattuck, Miss Alice and Irvin Murray of this town, Walter of Barton, Charles of Littleton, N. H., and Edwin of Sugar Hill, N. H., all of whom were here to attend the funeral which was held on Sunday.

BROWNINGTON CENTER.

Viola Shepherd is on the sick list.

Mrs. Rebecca Badger is on the sick list.

Jessie Morehouse is home from Keene, N. H., for a month's vacation.

Frank Rowe is suffering with blood poison in his hand.

The Misses Edith and Viola Shepherd visited their grandparents at Irasburg the past week.

Mrs. Maria Heath, who has been at A. P. Alexander's for several weeks has returned to her home at Barton.

Mrs. Lora Fuller and her granddaughter, Glenn Fuller of Irasburg, were guests at E. A. Robinson's last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jeffrey, Ed. Harvey and Miss Massey of East Burke, called on members of the D. of L. last Tuesday.

The Ladies' Guild will have a social and ice cream supper at the town hall Tuesday evening, July 26. Rev. G. Burke of Orleans will give a lecture. Subject, "Keep Quiet, and Mind Your Own Business." All cordially invited. Ladies please bring cake.

EVANSVILLE.

Ed. Carpenter is gaining.

Miss Kate Marshall is very sick.

Roscoe Drown is working for Wm. Monteith.

Mrs. L. A. Drown the nurse has gone to Woodsville.

Wm. Monteith's mother has returned home to Windsor, P. Q.

Mrs. W. C. Christie's sister and children of New York are here visiting.

About thirty of the schoolmates and friends of Miss Bessie Monteith met at her home here and gave her a surprise on Friday evening it being her eighteenth birthday a number of nice presents were left, games were played, and cake and ice cream served. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed by all.

Foley Kidney Pills Have Cured Me.

The above is a quotation from a letter written by H. M. Winkler, Evansville, Ind. "I contracted a severe case of kidney trouble. My back gave out and pained me. I seemed to have lost all strength and ambition; was bothered with dizzy spells, my head would swim and specks float before my eyes. I took Foley Kidney Pills regularly and am now perfectly well and feel like a new man. Foley Kidney Pills cured me." Sold by all druggists.

EAST CHARLESTON.

Harry Taylor is very ill with pneumonia.

Geo. Stoddard of West Derby visited at Lawrence Stoddard's recently.

Miss Laura Whitehill is the guest of her sister, Miss Merrill Lewis.

Mrs. W. G. Jackson and son of New York are guests at Eugene Hinton's.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Buck and Lou spent Sunday with relatives in Irasburg.

Miss Jennie Campbell has gone to Bethlehem, N. H., to work for the summer.

Mrs. Frank Wilder is entertaining a little granddaughter from Sherbrooke.

Mrs. Peter McCrystal and two children of Berlin are visiting at Mrs. Geo. Lang's.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Cota and son Errol visited his sister in Brownington the past week.

Jean Hinton shot a bear that weighed a little over 70 pounds in his pasture last week.

The topic for the C. E. prayer meeting July 21. "The Christian Use of Letter Writing." Leader, Miss Laura Gray.

Misses Mabel and Nellie Dewing of Glover visited Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Crow and several other relatives in town last week.

C. E. Moulton and family have returned to their cottage at Lake Seymour. W. E. Tripp worked in the store during Mr. Moulton's absence.

James Hinton's house caught fire in one of the bedrooms last Monday but help enough arrived to put out the fire before much damage was done. The cause of the fire was unknown.

Lightning struck Harry Taylor's house July 10, knocking down a chimney and stove pipes, tearing up the floor and a rug and breaking a screen door, one of the children had a shoe torn on his foot, but no one was hurt though they were badly frightened.

Hay Fever and Asthma.

Brine discomfort and misery to many people but Foley's Honey and Tar gives relief and comfort to the suffering ones. It relieves the congestion in the head and throat and is soothing and healing. None get well but Foley's Honey and Tar in the yellow package. Sold by all druggists.

WEST CHARLESTON.

Mrs. Nathan Allen is ill.

Mrs. Will Palin of Holland visited friends here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spencer and son are guests at Will Reed's.

Mrs. S. D. Barrup has been quite ill the past week with tonsillitis.

Henry Wilder is working in Newport.

Mrs. Odell and children recently visited her parents in Coventry.

Henry Fletcher has gone to East Charleston to work for Kit Hudson.

Miss Bean of Coventry was a guest of Miss Esther Kidder the past week.

Roland Hastings is visiting at the home of his uncle, N. C. Eastman.

Leona Driver is recovering from her severe illness of the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Badger are entertaining his mother, Mrs. Mary Badger.

Miss Lillian Bennett of White Plains, N. Y., is visiting her sister, Mrs. McNair.

Maurice Pickel and Samuel Hamilton of Newport recently visited at Peter Pickel's.

Mrs. Henry Church and little son recently visited at Chester Carpenter's in Derby.

Eva Torrence of Weststead, P. Q., is spending her vacation with her aunt, Mrs. Kendrick.

Mrs. Erwin Willey and two daughters of Salem, Mass., are visiting at Charles Hildreth's.

The body of William Moore, an aged man and former resident, was brought here recently for burial.

Wallace Lafoe of Holland spent last Sunday here with his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lafoe.

The grange will meet July 26. A concert will be given by the children. The meeting is open to the public.

Mrs. George Kinne has returned from New Hampshire after spending several weeks there with relatives.

S. D. Barrup has had a nice granary built in his barn. Ed. Hutchinson and his father have done the work.

Mrs. N. C. Eastman and Mrs. Ed. Albee went to Derby one day last week to visit their sister, Mrs. Julia Ruiter.

Mrs. McIntire of Lowell, Mass., formerly of this place, is visiting relatives here after an absence of thirty-three years.

A. J. Crawford of Westfield has taken the job to do John Stump's hay. Carmi Hunt is driving Mr. Crawford's team.

A good number went to Brownington last week to attend the grange meeting, that society having invited the strangers from here.

The body of George Holton of Derby was brought here for burial last week. Mr. Holton was a brother of J. B. Holton of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey and two children of Jamaica, N. Y., are spending their vacation here and boarding at the Clyde River House.

Tessie Goodsell, who has been working at Dr. Kendrick's has returned to her home in Morgan Center and Etta Armstrong is working at Dr. Kendrick's.

Mrs. Vincent Jones and daughter Winsome of West Derby and Mrs. Leslie Skinner and daughter of St. Johnsbury are visiting at P. Pickel's. Mr. Jones also spent Sunday here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Kidder went last week Tuesday evening to attend the grange meeting at Brownington and went from there to Lowell where they were guests of Rev. and Mrs. E. T. Hurd.

After Eugene Dwyer had decided he could not teach a calf to drink, his little daughter Mildred undertook the task and succeeded. We think that is doing pretty well for a little miss under three years of age.

Prompt treatment of a slight attack of Diarrhoea will often prevent a serious sickness. The best known remedy is Dr. SETH ARNOLD'S BALSAM. Your apothecary, F. J. Kinney, Orleans, warrants it to give satisfaction.

WEST DERBY.

Mrs. Eddie Streeter on Elm street has scarlet fever.

Mrs. Thomas Donaghy visited in Knowlton recently.

Bernice Davis is visiting at Charlie Young's in Coventry.

Mrs. Pollard of Athol, Mass., is visiting at J. F. Gray's.

Arthur Moulton was home recently from Burlington over Sunday.

Mrs. Murray Fuller is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Allen of Antrim, N. H.

Mrs. Fred Donaghy has been spending a few weeks in Springfield, Mass., with her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Joel Bly visited his brother, John Bly, at Georgeville, Que., last Sunday.

CRAFTSBURY.

Craftsbury items on another page.

Mrs. Averill from Barre is visiting at W. C. Williams.

C. H. Rawson left Saturday for his home in Cliftondale, Mass.

Fred Williams moved last week to the home of his father, Jack Williams.

Harold Kinney visited his parents last week returning to Boston Saturday.

Mrs. Charles Hoyt and daughter from Morrisville visited in this town Friday.

Mrs. Minnie Hill and three children came last week to visit her mother, Mrs. Eben Smith.

Mrs. Jennie Hubbard left Monday for California, where she expects to remain for the present.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Rawson from Cliftondale were visiting at I. A. Smith's Thursday and Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Woodbury visited Mrs. Woodbury's mother Sunday, who is very ill in Barton.

Mrs. Henry Fadden, who is in very poor health, came from Barton Saturday to spend a little time with her parents.

Blanche Rawson, who has been spending her vacation with her grandparents, left for her home in Cliftondale Thursday.

Mrs. Hattie Patterson and daughter Ethel of Somerville are spending a few weeks visiting relatives and friends in this town.

Mrs. C. H. Harriman of Albany, N. Y., came here Thursday but was later called to Barton by the serious illness of Mrs. A. R. Cowles.

GLOVER.

N. A. Norton and family of Lyndonville are camping at Stone Pond.

Fred Dwinell of Lyndonville visited his mother, Mrs. J. E. Dwinell, last week.

Miss Lola Sargent spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Sargent.

Mrs. N. L. Dow and daughter Grace visited Mrs. Dow's parents in Albany last week.

Miss Minnie Shepherd, who has been ill with typhoid fever is improved so as to be out.

A. B. Speir took a trip to St. Johnsbury and Concord last week, combining business with pleasure.

Frank Fuller of Hardwick, a former resident of this town, called on several of his old friends the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Shaeffer and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Bean of Orleans are in camp at Stone Pond for two weeks.

Miss Iva Lou Towle, who has been stopping for some time with her aunt, Mrs. Ford, returned to her home last Saturday.

Mrs. Nettie Peters and daughter, who have been occupying the Paddock tenement returned to their home in Canada last week.

Mrs. W. C. Leonard and daughter of Cambridge, Mass., came Monday and are spending a few weeks, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chapin Leonard.

Mrs. Charles Gray, who has been ill for a long time, is much improved. Last Saturday she received a post card shower, a large number of her many friends remembering her at that time.

About twenty of the friends of Miss Fannie Sargent gave her a surprise last Saturday evening, the occasion being her 19th birthday. The evening was spent in a social way. Dainty refreshments were served and a most enjoyable evening was spent. Miss Sargent was the recipient of several choice gifts.

The following was taken from the Boston Sunday Post of June 26. Mr. Clark will be remembered as a Glover boy: "Many felicitations are being called forth by the engagement of Miss Edith Mabel Gerry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis E. Gerry of Melrose, to Armour Wylie Clark, son of Dr. and Mrs. Caleb W. Clark of Melrose Highlands."

The trustees of the village have purchased a fire engine, which, together with hose and cart etc., is to cost a little over a thousand dollars. It is expected to reach here in a few days, when it will be thoroughly tested. This is a move in the right direction as past experience will testify. Every village of the size of Glover needs some kind of a fire protection.

Mrs. Sarah King went to St. Johnsbury Saturday to receive treatment for her eyes. Her condition was found to be such that an operation was the only means by which her sight could be spared. Accordingly she was operated on Sunday, and at this writing is doing as well as could be expected though it is not yet known just what the result may be. Mrs. May Quimby, who accompanied Mrs. King, returned home Monday.

Next Sunday at 2 p. m., a service will be held in the grove at Stone Pond. Rev. W. A. Warner will speak and it is expected that Rev. G. L. Shaeffer of Orleans, who is in camp at the pond, will also speak. Mrs. Parker will have charge of the music. All arrangements for the convenience of those who may attend are being made and a service pleasing and profitable is sure to be held.

WEST GLOVER.

Most of the sick ones are reported as improving slowly.

Chester King and family have been visiting friends here.

Miss Marion Kirby was a guest at David Gilmour's last week.

Vera Lewis, who has been visiting friends in Barton, has returned home.

Mrs. Wilson, who has been caring for her daughter in Barton is at home.

Miss Catherine Wilcox of Morgan is spending a week with her aunt, Mrs. Hastings.

Mrs. Guy Garvin, who has been visiting her parents, has gone to her home in Lunenburg.

Corienne Hunt of Springfield, Mass., and Miss Colburn from Barton spent Sunday with Mrs. Hastings.

Rev. R. B. Wright occupied the pulpit Sunday. His many friends here were glad to hear him again.

GREENSBORO BEND.

Geo. Colby spent Sunday with his parents in Victory.

Mrs. Martha Dwyer visited at Mrs. E. R. Collins' last week.

Miss Helen McFarland is attending the summer school at Johnson.

Mrs. Mary Weed is stopping at Dr. Weeks' in East Hardwick for a time.

Mrs. Octavia Anair of Lyndon is spending a few weeks here with her children.

Mrs. O. L. Barnard and daughters are spending a few weeks in Worcester, Mass., among friends.

Mrs. Inez Graham returned home the first of the week from a ten days' stay in Massachusetts and New Hampshire.

Mrs. McGill of Barnet, who has been visiting her sister and other friends here, is spending a week in Hardwick before returning home.

Theodore Gochie and Miss Bertha Dezan were married at the parsonage Friday evening, July 8, by Rev. O. L. Barnard. Their many friends wish them a long and happy married life.

C. F. Bullard moved his baker shop from the Ritchie building to the building recently repaired by Mrs. Salmon and will open up a grocery and bakery soon.

LOWELL.

Mrs. Mary Murphy is very ill.

R. C. Kinsley lost a valuable cow last Saturday.

Mr. Hodgden of Troy was a caller in town on business.

Miss Clara Burgess has gone to Bakerville for the summer.

Geo. Phipps spent Sunday in Newport with his uncle and aunt.

Mrs. Lois Watson was home from Bradford the past week.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Rabidoux, July 10.

Mr. Burns of Walpole, N. H., was in town a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Winget entertained friends from Irasburg over Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Tillotson of Morrisville is visiting her son, M. L. Tillotson.

Mrs. Della Sinclair was in Westfield the past week visiting at her home.

Mrs. Ella Curtis entertained friends from Fairfax the first of the week.

Carroll S. Page and son from Hyde Park, were in town on business Thursday.

Frank Kinney and family of Newport spent Sunday in town with relatives.

Miss Jennie Messier is home for her summer vacation from New Haven, Conn.

Mrs. Hodges of Hyde Park, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kelley.

Eleven took examinations July 7 and 8 for teaching, also two for secondary schools.

Miss Mabel Farman has finished her school in Troy and is at home for the summer.

Frank Hemenway has moved his family to Orleans, where he has employment.

Amos Deblois had the end of his little finger taken off in a mowing machine Thursday.

Miss Ruby Powers of Stoneham is at the home of her uncle, C. J. Powers, for a few weeks.

Mr. Walters from New York has been canvassing the town for soap orders for the past week.

Annie Carter has been quite sick for the past week, suffering with kidney sores in her throat.

Mr. and Mrs. Kidder of Charleston, were guests of Rev. and Mrs. E. T. Hurd the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Benway and daughter of Enosburg were guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Lambert last week.

Miss Helen Stephenson is home from Concord, N. H., where she has been for the past year, teaching school.

A three years old son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Tillotson, was badly injured by falling from a wagon box while at play with other children.

The M. E. Ladies Aid society met with Mrs. Ella Curtis Wednesday. About thirty took supper and all enjoyed a pleasant afternoon.

The friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Shortleaves met at their home Wednesday evening, July 13, to help celebrate their marriage anniversary, the fiftieth. Cake and coffee were served and a pleasant evening spent.

Lightning struck the house of Geo. Paronto Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Paronto, who was cooking over the stove, was struck by lightning; her shoes and stockings were torn from her feet and she was burned very badly. The house was slightly damaged.

MORGAN.

Ellis Courser is haying in Holland.

H. H. Weeden is expected home soon.

Leo C. Wheeler is suffering with boils.

Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Moore were at Willoughby July 14.

E. K. Lord has finished a hall and has had social dances.

Geo. Cobb has made a fine improvement on his dwelling.

Mr. and Mrs. Pillsbury of Hanover, N. H., have been visiting their granddaughter, Mrs. Sidney Clapper.

MORGAN CENTER.

A. A. Burroughs is ill.

Francis Hill is home from his trip with Wm. Vinton.

Terry Paye from Brownington was in town last week.

Mrs. John Crowe is entertaining friends from Glover.

Mrs. Grace Caswell is home from her work at Newport.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ewens Saturday.

Lafa Dutton is working at L. Wheeler's in Holland.

Mrs. Susie Elliott and son Floyd from Island Pond are in town.

C. N. Moulton of East Charleston has been spending a few days at the lake.

Clarence Crowe and family of Derby Line spent Sunday with friends here.

Ray Heath and family of Stanstea visited at Mrs. A. Daggett's last week.

Mrs. Marshall Ames has been the guest of friends at Derby Line for a few days.

Mrs. Mabel Peavey and little son Emerson from Island Pond visited here last week.

Mrs. E. C. Burroughs and daughter Grace of Island Pond were in town for a short visit last week.

TROY.

Archie Page is here from Albany to spend a week with friends.

Mrs. Jack Drew of Orford, N. H., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Colburn.

Jerome Burbank is here from Toronto to spend some time with his uncle Hiram Peck.

Mrs. Fred Beck and son Royce were here from St. Johnsbury to visit friends recently.

William Thurber of Springfield, Mass., has been visiting relatives and friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Edmunds and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Miller are camping at Derby for a week.

Rev. John Elliott Bowman is absent on a visit to Boston. The church will be closed July 24th and 31st.

Mrs. Puffer and daughter, Miss Katherine Puffer, were here from St. Johnsbury to visit relatives last week.

Mrs. Guy Cook and daughters Marion and Vivian of Derby have been visiting Mrs. Cook's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Albee.

Rev. S. H. Greene, D. D., Mrs. Greene and Dr. and Mrs. S. H. Greene, Jr., are here from Washington, D. C., to spend the summer at their farm.

WESTFIELD.

I. S. Wilson was a business caller in town recently.

Mrs. Grant of Craftsbury has returned to Byron Gilman's.

H. O. Miller, who is in a very precarious condition, continues about the same.

Rev. M. W. Farman supplied the Congregational pulpit at Coventry last Sunday.

Miss Vera Bailey of Richford has been visiting at the home of her uncle, O. W. Bailey.

FALLING HAIR

Can Easily Be Stopped; Also Dandruff and Itching Scalp.

If Parisian Sage doesn't stop falling hair, itching scalp, and eradicate dandruff in two weeks, Fred D. Pierce stands ready to refund your money without argument or red tape of any kind.

Parisian Sage will put a fascinating radiance into any woman's hair in a few days.